ORDER

Before the Court is Jeffrey Young, Jr.'s Petition for Return of Property filed pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 41(g) on October 30, 2017. Young seeks the return of three computers seized from him during the Drug Enforcement Agency's execution of a search warrant. On December 12, 2017, the United States of America filed a response in opposition to Young's Petition, arguing that the seized computers are part of an ongoing criminal investigation. On December 20, 2017, Young filed an affidavit (ECF No. 10) from a computer forensics expert who opined that the government could make a copy of all information found on a computer and then return the devices to the rightful owner. No further activity has occurred in the case since that time.

The Court hereby orders the United States to file a status report on this matter. The government's status report should include an update on the current status of its investigation and, if incomplete, its expected duration. The government should also report on whether it still has possession of Young's property and, if so, whether the government has brought any additional proceedings, such as civil forfeiture, to dispose of the property. Finally, the government should show why the Court should not set this matter for hearing. The government's status report is due January 16, 2019.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
